Children's TV MM Docket #93-48
Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
1919 M Street NW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am concerned about the apparent lack of enforcement of the FCC's own regulations regarding the programming of children's television programs.

Enough is Enough! If your staff took the time to watch prime-time children TV I think that you would discover that with the exception of Public Television channels there is high violence and aggressive content to a majority of programs.

As a parent, I think it is time that the Commission took a tough stand and limited the "violent Infomercials" that pass as "educational" programs for children.

Please curb these over aggressive Network Programmers for the sake of our future generations.

Thank you.

Very truly Yours,

Jeff Ward

Dear Sir,

I'm writing to encourage you to promote better standards for children's T.V., especially in the area of morals. Why can't somebody update old favorites like "Leave it to Beaver", "David & Goliath" ??? It must be hard nowadays for children to realize what is right or wrong when a few good examples are set before them.

The standards for adults are pathetic. No wonder there is so much violence in our country as there is so much shown. Not everyone wants to watch trash when there are so many other interesting subjects to be explored. Even for children too.

Thank you for listening
